

Essendon Symphony Orchestra
presents

The poster for the 'Animal Antics Kids' Concert' features a central illustration of various animals and musical instruments. At the top left is a brown deer, next to a blue elephant. To the right is a purple rabbit. Below these are a white swan, a yellow trumpet, a red fox, a green frog, and a yellow dog. Musical instruments include a violin, a double drum, and a blue flute. The title 'Animal Antics' is written in large, colorful letters, with 'Kids' Concert' below it. The background is a textured, light brown color.

ESSO
ESSENDON
SYMPHONY
ORCHESTRA

Animal Antics
Kids' Concert

Come dressed as your favourite animal!

Sunday 23rd August - 2.30pm

Clocktower Centre - 750 Mt Alexander Rd - Moonee Ponds
Tickets $15 - adults at kids' prices - tickets on sale July 23rd
For Bookings, contact Clocktower Box Office on 9243 9191 or clocktowercentre.com.au

Essendon Symphony Orchestra: Animal Antics Kids' Concert

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
August 2015						1
2	3	4	5	6	7	8
9	10	11	12	13	14	15
16	17	18	19	20	21	22
23	24	25	26	27	28	29
30	31	Notes:

August 2015 Calendar Printable calendars available from www.calendarcraze.com

Essendon Symphony Orchestra
are having a concert on Sunday 23rd August at 2.30pm.

The concert is at the Clocktower
Centre in Moonee Ponds.

The audience will sit in chairs and look at the stage.

The orchestra will sit on the stage.

Jenny is the orchestra conductor. At 2.30pm she will walk onto the stage and the orchestra will stand up. Then the orchestra will sit down and the concert will begin.

Jenny will talk about the music. Then she will wave her baton and the music will start.

Carnival of the animals

Royal march of lions

The first piece is Royal March of the lions. Can you hear the lions roar?

Carnival of the animals

Elephant

The next piece is Elephant. Which instrument plays the elephant music?

Carnival of the animals

?

Can you guess which animal is this music?

Carnival of the animals

Cuckoo

Two instruments play the cuckoo part in this piece. Do you know the names of these instruments?

Carnival of the animals

Fossils

Fossils are bones of animals from long ago. Do you think this music sound like bones?

Teddy bears' picnic

There are words to this song, but today the orchestra will play without singing the words.

Thieving magpie

This is the longest piece in the concert. It is the overture from a famous opera.

Magnificent seven

Follow Jenny's instructions to dance and clap in this piece!

Swan lake
Dance of the little cygnets

Swan lake
Scene

These two pieces are from a famous ballet "Swan Lake". Can you imagine the ballerinas pretending to be swans?

Harp solo

Do you like the sound of the harp?

Old Macdonald

Who is conducting "Old Macdonald"?

Flight of the bumblebee

Is this piece fast or slow?
Do you think it sounds like a buzzing bee?

Carnival of the animals

Swan

Which two instruments play a duet in Swan?

A finale is the last piece in a concert. And this is the end of our concert.

At the end of the concert
the members of the orchestra stand up and the audience claps.

We hope you enjoyed the concert!

For the parents:

- If your child needs to leave the auditorium, there will be seats in the foyer and your child can watch the concert on a TV screen.
- The Clocktower Centre will admit a Companion Card holder's companion to events at no charge.